

SPECIAL EDITION OF "MAYORS REPORT"
AIRING ON TV30

PLEASANTON, CA - (2.14.14) - A special one-hour edition of "Mayors Report" taped on location at U.S. Army Camp Parks in Dublin, is currently airing on Tri-Valley TV30. Mayors from the cities of Dublin, Livermore, and Pleasanton discuss topical issues relating their cities and the Tri-Valley. The show may be viewed on Comcast TV Channel 30 and AT&T U-verse via Channel 99 as well as streaming live on the TV30 website at www.tv30.org.

"It was a pleasure and an honor to support TV30's "Mayors Report" here at Camp Parks," said Dan Gannod, Public Affairs Office, U.S. Army Camp Parks. "It was an interesting mix of talk show and CSPAN where we were privy to the future events and plans of the three cities."

Appearing on "Mayors Report" are Dublin Mayor Tim Sbranti, Livermore Mayor John Marchand, and Pleasanton Mayor Jerry Thorne, with TV30 moderator Tom Morrison. Among the topics discussed include Zone 7 Water Agency drought conditions, conservation measures, hunger and social services in the Tri-Valley.

For complete schedule of air dates and times, visit the Tri-Valley TV website www.tv30.org. In addition, "Mayors Report" may be viewed via Video on Demand on the website.
